

WHAT TO WEAR FOR PROMOTION

A how to guide.

SEMI-FORMAL ATTIRE

- What's semi-formal? A semi-formal dress code is best described as being more formal than what you would wear to an office, but slightly less formal than what you would wear to a formal event.
- Button up shirts, polo shirts, and ties are not necessary but are optional
- Clean pants. Slacks or dark wash jeans (Jeans with holes or distressed, are not considered semi-formal)
- Dresses, floor length gowns are not necessary. Opt for knee-length dresses or above the knee.
- Skirts. Opt for knee-length, or just above the knee.
- Blouses

DON'T FORGET, DRESS CODE STILL APPLIES

- The same dress code applies to the promotion ceremony, here are some reminders-
- Straps of dresses must cover undergarments
- No mid-drifts
- No flip flops or Crocs
- No baggy pants
- No inappropriate messages or symbols on shirts
- Hats are not recommended